

RULES & REGULATIONS

The Harbour Homeowners' Association, Inc
Adopted on February 11, 2026

The Harbour Homeowners' Association, Inc.
RULES & REGULATIONS

The following initial Rules and Regulations ("Rules & Regulations") are contained in the By-Laws for The Harbour Homeowners' Association, Inc ("Association"). They are applicable to all Residents as well as to their Guests, and Visitors. These Rules & Regulations are amended and supplemented from time to time as determined in the sole discretion of the Association's Board of Directors.

Common Elements

The Common Elements of the Association are for the exclusive use of the Association members and their families, lessees, resident houseguests, guests accompanied by a member, and employees and contractors within their scope of employment or agreement. No other person shall be permitted to use the Common Areas of the Association without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors.

The sidewalks, entrances, passages, lobbies, hallways and like portions of the Common Areas shall not be obstructed nor used for any purpose other than for ingress and egress to and from the Association Property; nor shall any carts, bicycles, carriages, chairs, tables, clothing, shoes or any other objects be stored therein, except in areas (if any) designated for such purposes.

Every Unit Owner and other occupant of a Unit shall be responsible for cleaning up after themselves when they use the Common Areas, including, but not limited to, placing all trash in appropriate receptacles.

The personal property of Residential Unit Owners and Occupants must be stored in their respective Residential Units.

No articles other than patio-type furniture shall be placed on the balconies, patios, terraces, lanais or other Common or Limited Common Elements of Residential Units. No linens, cloths, clothing, shoes, bathing suits or swimwear, curtains, rugs, mops, or laundry of any kind or other articles, shall be shaken or hung from any of the windows, doors, balconies, patios, terraces, lanais, railings or other portions of the Condominium or Association Property.

No Unit Owner or Occupant shall permit anything to fall from a window or door of their Unit or from Association Property, nor sweep or throw from their Unit or Association Property any dirt or other substance onto any of the balconies, patios, terraces, lanais or elsewhere in the Building or upon the Common Elements. Each Unit Owner shall be responsible for cleaning up after themselves and their Guests, tenants and invitees when within the Condominium Property and/or Association Property, including, without limitation, placing all trash in the proper receptacles.

No one may remove any personal property of the Association from the Common Areas without the prior written consent of the Board of Directors

No person shall destroy or damage any part of a common element, including structural elements, fixtures and other Association property

No garbage, refuse, trash or rubbish shall be deposited except as permitted by the Association. The requirements of the company or agency providing trash removal services for disposal or collection shall be complied with. All equipment for storage or disposal of such material shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition.

No Residential Unit Owner or occupant shall make or permit any disturbing noises, nor allow any disturbing noises to be made by the Owner's family, employees, pets, agents, tenants, visitors or licensees, nor permit any conduct by such persons or pets that will interfere with the rights, comforts or conveniences of other Unit Owner or occupants. No Residential Unit Owner or occupant shall play or permit to be played any musical instrument, nor operate or permit to be operated a phonograph, television, radio or sound amplifier in his or her Unit in such a manner as to disturb or annoy other Residents. No Residential Unit Owner or occupant shall conduct nor permit to be conducted, vocal or instrumental instruction at any time, which disturbs other residents.

No sign, advertisement, notice or other graphics or lettering shall be exhibited, displayed, inscribed, painted or affixed in, on or upon any part of the Condominium or Association Property, except signs used or approved by the Board or signs utilized by the Commercial Units. Additionally, no awning, canopy, shutter or other projection shall be attached to or placed upon the outside walls or roof of the Building or on the Common Elements by any Residential Unit Owner, without the prior consent of the Board of Directors of the Association.

No flammable, combustible or explosive fluids, chemicals or substances shall be kept in any Residential Unit or in the Common Elements, other than what is reasonable and customary in vehicles and/or in cleaning supplies.

In order to promote the safety, security, and peaceful enjoyment of the premises by all residents, guests, and invitees, and to minimize disturbances and hazards, the open carrying of firearms or weapons is prohibited within the common elements and common areas of the Condominium property, including, without limitation, within the clubhouse, gym, indoor and outdoor recreational facilities, meeting rooms, landscaped areas, and the pool/pool deck areas. This rule shall not be construed to prohibit the lawful carrying or possession of firearms or weapon within a unit or within the private property of a resident, guest, or invitee, nor does it apply to law enforcement officers who are acting in their official capacity.

No work of any type is to be done in the hallway. No materials, boxes, etc., are to be left in the hallways. Work can only be done inside the apartment with the authorization from the Management Office.

Children will be the direct responsibility of their parents or legal guardians, including full supervision of them while within the Association Property and including full compliance by them with these Rules and Regulations and all other Rules and Regulations of the Association. Loud noises will not be tolerated. All children under twelve (12) years of age must be accompanied by a responsible adult when entering and/or utilizing the recreational facilities.

No drones of any kind can be used on Association property.

Fireworks. No one shall discharge fireworks or other pyrotechnical displays anywhere within the Association Property; provided, however, that the Association may sponsor a professionally-managed fireworks display for all Owners, Tenants and their respective Guests within an appropriately cleared space of the Common Areas, if approved by the Board of Directors.

- a. No one may conduct commercial door-to-door solicitations anywhere within the Association Property. The Board of Directors may permit reputable charitable organizations to conduct door-to-door solicitations within the Association Property, but any such organization shall provide prior notice of its proposed solicitation activities to the Association and shall have obtained the prior written approval of the Board.

- b. Business & Trade Uses. No one may use a Residential Unit for any purpose other than a personal residence and closely related accessory uses; provided, however, that the Owner or Tenant of a Residential Unit may maintain and use a “home office” within such Unit strictly conditioned upon the facts that such business or trade activity: (a) is not apparent or detectable by sight, sound, or smell from outside the Unit; (b) conforms to all zoning and other land use requirements of the State, the County or any other governmental body having jurisdiction over the Condominium; (c) does not involve door-to-door solicitation of the Owners or occupants of any Unit; (d) does not, in the reasonable judgment of the Board of Directors, generate a level of vehicular or pedestrian traffic or a number of vehicles being parked within the Condominium Property which is noticeably greater than that which is typical of Units in which no home office is maintained; and (e) is consistent with the residential character of the Condominium and does not constitute a nuisance, or a hazardous or offensive use, or threaten the security or safety of other residents of the Condominium, as may be determined in the Board’s sole discretion. As used in this Rule, the terms “business” and “trade” shall be construed to have their ordinary, generally accepted meanings and shall include, without limitation, any occupation, work, or activity undertaken on an on-going basis which involves providing goods or services for which the provider receives a fee, compensation, or other form of consideration, regardless of whether such activity: (a) is engaged in full-time or part-time; (b) is intended to be for-profit or not-for-profit; or (c) requires a license.
- c. Every applicable Owner and occupant shall comply with these Rules and Regulations as set forth herein, all Rules and Regulations which from time to time may be adopted and the provisions of the Declaration, By-Laws and Articles of Incorporation of the Association, as amended from time to time. Failure of an Owner or occupant to so comply shall be grounds for action which may include, without limitation, an action to recover sums due for damages, injunctive relief or any combination thereof. In addition to all other remedies, a charge or charges or a suspension of use rights may be imposed upon an Owner for failure of an Owner, or such Owner’s family, guests, invitees, lessees or employees, to comply with any covenant, restriction, rule or regulation herein or in the Declaration, Articles of Incorporation or By-Laws, provided that the procedures set forth in the Declaration for fining are adhered to. Fines shall not be construed to be an exclusive remedy and shall exist in addition to all other rights and remedies to which the Association may be otherwise legally entitled; however, any penalty paid by the offending Owner or occupant shall be deducted or offset against any damages which the Association may otherwise be entitled to recover by law from such Owner or occupant.
- d. These Rules and Regulations shall be cumulative with the covenants, conditions and restrictions set forth in the Declaration and governing documents, provided that the provisions of same shall control over these Rules and Regulations in the event of a conflict or a doubt as to whether a specific practice or activity is or is not permitted.

The Board of Directors shall be permitted (but not required) to grant relief to one or more Unit Owners from specific Rules and Regulations upon written request therefore and good cause shown in the sole opinion of the Board.
